

WEATHER AND CLIMATE (ATM)

ATM 340 Introduction to Weather and Climate (3 Credits)

Students will be introduced to concepts of weather and climate, including atmospheric measurements, radiation, precipitation, winds, fronts, forecasting, and severe weather. Applied topics include global warming, ozone depletion, and world climates.

Prerequisite: PHY 211