

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

In a rapidly changing economy, new opportunities arise every day for individuals with specific business knowledge and administrative skills. Top careers available to business administration majors include: accountant, administrative executive, chief executive officer, manager, consultant, director, human resource manager, public relations specialist, and many other rewarding careers. Our business administration degree programs will provide you with the skills needed to be competitive and effective leaders in the business world.

Degrees

- Business Administration Associate of Science (<https://uttc-public.courseleaf.com/programs/business-administration/business-administration-as/>)
- Business Administration Bachelor Degree (<https://uttc-public.courseleaf.com/programs/business-administration/business-administration-bachelor/>)